

COMPARISON OF SENATE AND HOUSE IMPLEMENTING BILLS
Education Related Provisions

SECTION	SB 2502	HB 5003
1	Provides legislative intent that the implementing and administering provisions of the bill apply to the General Appropriations Act for Fiscal Year 2014-2015.	Similar
2	Incorporates by reference the calculations of the Florida Education Finance Program work papers for the purpose of displaying the calculations used by the Legislature.	Similar
3	Requires that, notwithstanding other statutory provisions relating to the expenditure of funds provided for instructional materials, for the 2014-2015 fiscal year, funds provided for instructional materials shall be released and expended as required in the proviso language attached to the FEFP Line Item (Specific Appropriation 96).	Not Included
4	Amends s. 1011.62 to expand the requirement of providing an additional hour of intensive reading instruction daily to students enrolled in the 300 lowest performing elementary schools; suspend the Virtual Education Contribution allocation for the 2014-2105 fiscal year; and makes other technical changes.	Not Included
5	Specifies that the amendments 1011.62 provided in Section 4 above expire July 1, 2015, and the text reverts to that in existence on June 30, 2014.	Not Included
6	Amends s. 1002.32, F.S., to require all lab schools with permanent high school centers in operation prior to September 1, 2013, receive their proportional share of sparsity supplement funds.	Not Included
7	Specifies that the amendments to s. 1002.32 provided in Section 6 above expire July 1, 2015, and the text reverts to that in existence on June 30, 2014.	Not Included
8	Amends s.1013.64, F.S., to provide that funds appropriated for remodeling, renovation, maintenance, repairs, and site improvement for existing satisfactory facilities be prorated based on each school district's share of the 2013-2014 reported fixed capital outlay FTE.	Not Included