Notice of Development of Rulemaking

Department: Department of Education

Division: State Board of Education

Rule No.: 6A-6.0212

Purpose: To incorporate revisions related to the Performance-Based Exit Option Model and State of Florida High School Performance-Based Diploma. The changes under consideration include amending and removing outdated language in both the rule and the form incorporated in the rule. Specifically, "Florida Standards Assessments" is replaced with "statewide, standardized assessments." This rule was last amended in 2015.

Notice of Development of Rulemaking

Department: Department of Education

Rule No.: 6A-6.03014

Purpose: To update the language and expand the process for making eligibility determinations for those students with a visual impairment including blindness to align with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. Additionally, language within the medical criteria section has been broadened to include students with a vision impairment, including blindness. A visual impairment must be identified regardless of significance or severity provided that such impairment, even with correction, adversely affects student's current and future education services.
