

Florida School Boards Association
RULE MAKING NOTICES

February 26, 2024

Notice of Proposed Rule

Department: Department of Education

Division: State Board of Education

Rule No.: 6A-10.0401

Purpose: Facilitates the statewide articulation of industry certifications pursuant to sections 1007.23 and 1008.44, F.S., which require the Articulation Coordinating Committee to recommend articulation agreements to the State Board of Education that provide for the articulation of postsecondary credit toward related degrees for earned industry certifications. The agreements provide opportunities for Florida's secondary and postsecondary students to accelerate their degree completion and save money through the award of postsecondary credit for earned industry certifications.

Notice of Proposed Rule

Department: Department of Education

Division: State Board of Education

Rule No.: 6A-1.09441

Purpose: The rule establishes the programs and courses that are funded through the Florida Education Finance Program (FEFP) and available for students to take to earn credit toward high school graduation. The programs and courses are listed in the "Course Code Directory and Personnel Assignments", which is revised on an annual basis prior to the end of the current school year to add new courses, as approved by the Commissioner, remove expired or deleted courses, and provide updates based on current law. The effect will be an updated directory of courses for students to take to earn credit toward high school graduation and for which school districts will be funded through the FEFP.

Notice of Proposed Rule

Department: Department of Education

Division: State Board of Education

Rule No.: 6A-6.0212

Purpose: The purpose of the rule amendment is to incorporate revisions related to the Performance-Based Exit Option Model and State of Florida High School Performance-Based Diploma. The changes under consideration include amending and removing outdated language in both the rule and the form incorporated in the rule. Specifically, "Florida Standards Assessments" is replaced with "statewide, standardized assessments." This rule was last amended in 2015.
