Notice of Development of Rulemaking

Department: Department of Education

Division: State Board of Education

Rule No.: 6A-1.0014

Purpose: To revise existing requirements of the statewide comprehensive management information system to implement changes recommended by school districts and to change state reporting and local recordkeeping procedures for state and/or federal programs as described in the updated FDOE Information Database Requirements. The rule also adopts the updated FDOE Information Database Requirements: Volume I – Automated Student Information System, 2025-26 and Volume II – Automated Staff Information System, 2025-26. The effect maintains compatibility among state and local information systems' components. The statewide comprehensive management information system provides data on which the measurement of school improvement and accountability is based.

Notice of Development of Rulemaking

Department: Department of Education

Rule No.: 6A-4.004

Purpose: To address changes in House Bill 809 (Ch. 2025-62, Laws of Florida) effective July 1, 2025, for the certification of school social workers. It will address the removal of certain restricted certificates and provide professional certificates for personnel providing student support services. This effect may allow more professionals to become certified in school social work and clarify the requirements for personnel providing student support services. Changes to fingerprint submission to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement and Federal Bureau Investigation will include agency review. The effect will provide clarification for the fingerprinting process. Additionally, other clarifying changes will be considered for restricted certificates, except for classical restricted certificates.
